"Musik Souvenirs"

Non-stop Cult Bigband Hits

The Roy Frank Orchestra is presenting their new concert program "Music Souvenirs" this fall and is delighted to announce their special guest:ÂÂÂÂÂÂÂÂ Icelandic female vocalist Hrund Ósk Árnadóttir. "Music Souvenirs" will delight your ears with classic hits from the good old days of German film and television entertainment from the 60's and 70's as well as swing hits and other highlights.

"Music Souvenirs" - the Programm

The band surrounding saxophonist and bandleader Roy Frank will transport their audience back to the times ofthe great Saturday evening shows in the style of the fantastic German radio and entertainment orchestras. Look forward to melodies such as the title songs from the cult shows "Raumpatrouille Orion", "Musik ist Trumpf" or "Dalli-Dalli", mystery soundtracks, Bert Kämpfert's songs as well as those from well-known American composers.

The Encounter

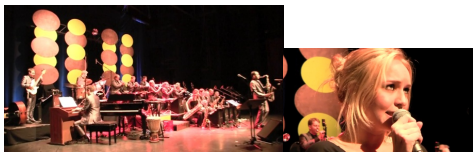

This new orchester from Hamburg, comprised of superb musicians from the northern German music scene, is particularly delighted to welcome their special guest, the Icelandic female vocalist Hrund Ósk Árnadóttir. This young Icelandic vocal volcano has even made it to the semi-finals of the Icelandic national competition for the European Song Contest.

She now brings music to the ears of Berlin audiences.

Roy Frank

Roy Frank, otherwise known as Bernd Frank, has been accompanying Max Raabe as the tenor saxophonist of the Palast Orchester for years. In 2009 he founded his own big band, the Roy Frank Orchestra. With his own arrangements the bandleader polishes up the "Music Souvenirs“ from old times to bring them back to their old glamour. Look forward to the known, the bizarre and the almost forgotten...
